

CAFO'S

Concentrated Animal Feeding Operation

GOOD or BAD

for Agriculture, the Environment, and the Residents of Fulton County?

COME TO A PANEL DISCUSSION

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2016

6:45pm

FULTON COUNTY LIBRARY

227 North First Street, McConnellsburg, PA 17233

(downstairs meeting room)

Open and Free to the Public

PANELISTS INCLUDE:

Doug Gurian-Sherman, Director of Sustainable Agriculture at the Center for Food Safety. A former EPA scientist, he seeks to spotlight developments in Sustainable Agriculture.

Daniel Leese, Fulton County resident participating in the family businesses of crops, hogs, beef, and produce. Dan is a State Board Member of the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau. He holds a Master's Degree in Biology.

Brent Walls, the Upper Potomac Riverkeeper. He has been an advocate for clean water for over a decade. With an Environmental Science background in fresh water ecology, Brent has brought a valuable scientific perspective to Potomac Riverkeeper.

Sponsored by:

BIG COVE CREEK

Alliance

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT: bigcovecreek@aol.com